

YOU'RE INVITED TO

An Afternoon of Classical Music at Cheney Mansion

Pianist Svetlana Krasnova and violinist Ilya Kaler perform a classical recital at Cheney Mansion, 220 N. Euclid in Oak Park, at 3 pm on Sunday, March 1. Mr. Kaler is the only violinist to win Gold Medals at all three of the world's most prestigious competitions. Currently Professor of Violin at DePaul University School of Music, his solo performances have taken him throughout Europe, Scandinavia, East Asia, and the former Soviet Union. Ms. Krasnova, who currently teaches at the College of DuPage, has a Masters degree in piano performance and a Doctorate of the Musical Arts degree in collaborative piano from the Gnesin Academy of Music (Moscow). She has performed as a soloist and chamber musician in Russia, Canada and the U.S. The duo performance will include pieces by Leclair, Mozart, Ysaye, Tchaikovsky, M.de Falla, Kreisler, and Wieniawski.

The fee for this event is $15. To reserve seating, call 708-383-2612.

Cheney Mansion is a historic property of the Park District of Oak Park.

