Public Skate: Seasonal Pass Information

New for 2010: Single Pass Fee Structure Program

We have eliminated the various pass types and converted to a single individual skating pass for everyone. Public Skate Passes are on sale now. These passes are valid for the Fall/Winter 2010-2011 season at the Paul Hruby Ice Arena. Passes are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Since 2008 the Park District has utilized a universal pass membership card system in the form of a photo ID. This membership card can be used for pool, rink, teen center and other memberships, so be sure to hold on to it! If you already have a membership card, this same card will be reactivated at the time your membership is purchased. There is a $5 fee for reprinting a lost membership card or updating your photo! Photos can be taken at Ridgeland Common or at the Administrative Center at 218 Madison Street during office hours.

Proof of Residency: Oak Park residents who wish to take advantage of the reduced resident rate must provide a Drivers License or State ID. Otherwise, we require 2 of the following: voter registration card, utility bill, Oak Park vehicle sticker receipt, or personal check with your address. Cell phone bills are not acceptable!
