Youth Hockey Development Program

The Ridgeland Common Hockey Development Program is a comprehensive skating and instructional skills development program offered as a prelude or in conjunction with the Park District's In-House Youth Hockey League. The goal of the program is to provide a fun, instructional program geared towards teaching children hockey foundations early in their athletic development. This program will allow for the child's hockey coach to focus their efforts on skills and game education. The Hockey Development skating program includes: Jersey (one per season) and a pass for one complimentary admission to public skate (expires at the end of the season).

Equipment Needed: Hockey skates (rental available for $2), gloves, helmet with face guard, elbow and knee pads, and stick depending on level.

See class level descriptions at right.
