

Spring is the best time to try out our dance programs!

Dress: All dance classes require dancers to wear leotards, tights and ballet shoes. Tap classes require tap shoes. Hair should be pulled back from face.

*Calling all Three-Year Olds ...

Unlike the fall and winter sessions of dance, which require stricter age restrictions, in spring you can sign up for the dance program provided you are at least three years old as of the first day of class.

Fairy Ballet (Ages 3-5) SW

Learn the basic ballet positions that help fairies spread their pixie dust and flutter their wings through the skies. Terminology, technique, and fun interactive games will help little fairies develop their gross motor skills. Special fairy props will be included to enhance participants imaginations.

Storybook Dance with Parent (Ages 3-6) SW

Each week a special story will be presented followed by dances created especially for these stories. This is a great introduction to dance for any little dancer that's too shy to leave mom or dad's side for an independent class. Proper dance terminology, dance technique, and balance and movement will also be incorporated into this class.

One-Week Dance Workshops

Dance Workshop - Wildcats

Choreography (Ages 6+) SW

Learn basic choreography and dance techniques each day followed by one-on-one time with Ms. Shaunda to create your own dance routine. Students must bring their own CD players and a selection of possible songs. By the end of the week each student will create their own dance. Friends are also encouraged to register to create a dance duet!

Dance Workshop — Under the Texan

Stars (Ages 6+) SW

Country music by Taylor Swift, Carrie Underwood, Rascal Flats, and other artists really can keep your feet stomping. Learn some basic country line dances, create your own blend of a line dance, and explore some good old country rhythm. Ms. Shaunda will spend time each day teaching a line dance, asking students to improvise their own line dances, and work individually with each one to create their own signature dance. Students must bring a CD player and their own music selections. Country music will be provided in this workshop.
